

MEDIA RELEASE
Thursday 18 September 2008
For immediate release

Sydney's electro-acoustic groove mechanics - Entropic, have been keeping busy in 2008, recently performing at Sydney's Underbelly Festival and for the Night Words Festival at Sydney Opera House, not to mention settling in new bass player Hal Strewé and writing new material for an upcoming album due in 2009.

In anticipation of the finished album, Entropic are excited to announce the release of the first single Fools Will Dance recently recorded and mixed by Chris Townend whose work on the debut album Braille helped define the Entropic sound early on.

Fools Will Dance is the latest taste of Entropic's ever evolving electro-organic sound; it's a stomping groove ballad that captures beautifully the band's improvised grooves and sonic experimentation.

The Fools Will Dance release comes with a tasty radio edit and a fresh remix of Trading Heroes by local Sydney producer Monkfly

SYDNEY LAUNCH Sunday 19th October @ Garden Music
Government House, Macquarie Street, Sydney,

Picnic and dance at this harbourside garden party and experience new musical sounds in the majestic surrounds of Government House.

www.myspace.com/gardenmusicsydney
www.entropic.com.au